

6th Egyptian German Dialogue,

Cairo Egypt, Tentative program Oct. 29-Oct. 31st, 2007 and Sunday Nov. 4,

■ Monday, October 29, 2007

Arrival of the German Delegation

■ Tuesday, October 30, 2007

Al Ahram Center for Political and Strategic Studies
Meeting with some staff of Egyptian parliament

Reception and panel discussion at CEOSS:
Views Exchange on Political, Economic, Social and Cultural Dimensions: Egyptian and German Perspectives

■ Wednesday, October 31, 2007

The National Council for Human Rights

Cairo University, "Program for Civilization Studies & Dialogue of Cultures", the panel will be entitled
"The Role of Academy Institution in promoting the culture of Dialogue & the Experience of program for Civilization Studies & Dialogue of Cultures"

GOETHE Institute, present the experience of Goethe Institute in Egypt and How Egyptian perceive the German Culture, followed by open discussion

■ Thursday, November 1, 2007

Welcome to conference and Introduction

Dr. Nabil Abadir, General Director CEOSS

Dr. Fritz Erich Anhelm, Director Protestant Academy
Loccum

Introduction of Participants

What do we have achieved in Egyptian- German-Dialogue until now? Process and Aims

George Khoury, Journalist, Cologne

The "Nature" of the citizenship-based modern State. Challenges of exclusiveness and integration in Germany: Prof. Dr. Ernst Gottfried Mahrenholz, Member of the Constitutional Court rt., Karlsruhe in Egypt: Dr. Adel Shreef, Vice president of the constitutional court

Reflection on Lectures and Plenary discussion:
Observations and Lessons learned

■ Friday, November 2, 2007

Introduction to Case Studies in Working groups

Case studies: How is citizenship perceived and recognized in the fields of politics, economy, culture and religion?

Obstacles of access and participation in Egyptian and German society

Working groups:

I. The understanding of citizenship in Politics and Society (Rights and Reality)

Prof. Hazem Hosny, faculty of economics and political sciences, Cairo University

Ingrid Fischbach, Member of Parliament, Berlin

Moderation:

II. The understanding of citizenship in Economy and Social Affairs (Labour Rights and Access)

Prof. Laia El Khawaga, professor of economics, faculty of Economics and political science

Prof. Dr. Gerhard Wegner, Head of Institute for Social Science of EKD, Hannover

III. The understanding of citizenship in Religion and Culture (Freedom of religious and cultural expression)

Dr. Gaber Asfour, the Head of National Center for translation, the former head for cultural superme council

Dr. Martin Affolderbach, Middle East
Department Protestant Churches in Germany,
Hannover

The role of Civil Society in activating, exercising, educating and practising Citizenship Reports on Activities:

Campaigning and Networking

Tim Kuschnerus, Protestant Development Service, Bonn

Educating

Prof. Rolf Wernstedt, former Minister of Education, Hanover

Empowering people

Dr. Christoph Dahling-Sander, Lutheran Church
Hannover

How things will change – exchange of views on Global Politics and Economy and how it affects Egypt and Germany

Introduced by Ambassador Bernd Erbel, Kairo

■ Saturday, November 3, 2007

The impact of universal civil movements on citizenship

Mr. Samir Morcous, Researcher and Intellectual

Prof. Dr. Reinhold Mokrosch, Chairman WCRP Osnabrück and Chairman Scientific board of Osnabrück Peace Dialogs

Evaluation of Conference and Final remarks